ABOUT THE TRAINER

Dr. Gloria Morrow is one of the nation's leading clinical psychologists, who devoted her early career to teaching students in undergraduate and graduate psychology programs, and to develop multicultural curriculum.

Dr. Gloria is a Master Trainer for the CBMCS (California Brief Multicultural Competency Scale) Training Program, and she helped to develop the training curriculum. In addition, she has developed the CBMCS Train the Trainer Program which prepares trainers to facilitate the CBMCS. This program focuses on the four major ethnic groups in America: African American, Asian/Pacific Islanders, Hispanic/Latino/Mexican American, and American Indian/Native American. However, Dr. Gloria includes other racial/ethnic groups as well as cultural groups, such as the LGBTQ community in this rich training program.

Dr. Gloria facilitates the CBMCS Training and the Train the Trainer Program to agencies and individuals across the country. She is a skilled trainer and is best known for her ability to facilitate courageous conversations with dignity and respect.
