

Appendix 5: Activity 7.4 Answers

I can add new information in the conclusion	False
I can't give my personal viewpoints in my assignments	False
I use quotation marks when quoting directly	True
I can present longer quotations as separate paragraphs	True
Longer quotations are usually more than three lines long	True
I can write 'main body of discussion' as my heading	False
My main body of discussion is divided into different sections and sub-sections that contain paragraphs	True
I can use both numbers and letters at the same time when listing my appendices	False
References are works I've cited throughout my discussion	True
One sentence can be considered a paragraph	False
My main body of discussion contains the main thrust of my arguments as well as my discussion of the topic	True
My conclusion draws together all the main points discussed in my assignment	True
Bibliography is everything I've read as background information for my assignment topic	True
