

SIXTY YEARS OF CLIENT-CENTERED/ EXPERIENTIAL PSYCHOTHERAPY AND COUNSELING: BIBLIOGRAPHICAL SURVEY OF BOOKS 1940-2000

GERMAIN LIETAER is a full professor at the Catholic University of Leuven and teaches client-centered/experiential psychotherapy and process research in psychotherapy. He is also a staff member of a 3-year part-time postgraduate training program in client-centered/experiential psychotherapy at the same university.

This bibliographical survey of books (only) contains three parts.

Part 1: Client-centered/experiential psychotherapy, 1939-1989. In this part, only books in their original language are mentioned. Books from this period that have been revised after 1989 are mentioned only under Part 2. There are separate subsections for the following languages: English, German, French, and Dutch.

Part 2: Client-centered/experiential psychotherapy, 1990-2000.

Part 3: Related approaches, 1990-2000. The main approaches covered are existential, interpersonal, Gestalt, narrative-constructivistic, feminist, and integrative/eclectic with major client-centered input.
